We are pleased to offer required anti-money laundering (AML) training through the Life Insurance Marketing Research Association (LIMRA) at no cost to you. The training can be completed from any computer with Internet access. The base course takes approximately 45 – 60 minutes to complete. Renewal courses take approximately 25 minutes to complete.

Accessing the website Log onto the course at the following website address:

https://knowledge.limra.com/

The website can be accessed by clicking on the link above, or copying and pasting it into the address field on your browser's tool bar. You will be required to input a unique username and password to gain access to the site.

• Username: Your username is your National Producer Number.
• First time password: If this is your first time logging on to this site, your password is your last name (lowercase). You will be asked to change your password. Please take note of your password and the answers to your security questions for future reference.
• Password: If you have previously accessed the course, use the password you created at that time. If you cannot recall your password, please contact LIMRA's Customer-Support Helpline at 866-364-2380. You will need to provide the answer to your security question.

Successful completion The home page states the percentage of the course you have completed. When your progress is 100%, you have completed the entire course. You will not receive a paper certificate of your completion of the course. You are not required to notify our office when you complete the AML training course. LIMRA will provide us with a report informing us that you have completed the course.
